6.1. A. Update on NWMO activity

Currently there are twenty-one communities in step three of the Learn More Process.

NWMO will announce this fall – end of the year 2013, which of the eight communities in phase one of stage three will enter, phase two of stage three.

In phase two of stage three, there will be increased regional engagement and more extensive geo scientific analysis of the potential host communities.

NWMO staff report that NWMO is continuing to participate in engagement activities including Union of New Brunswick tradeshow and transportation association conference.

6.1.B. Update on aboriginal engagement

Thanks to Braeden for continued representation for Hornepayne First Nations at CLC.

NWMO welcome Ross Holden to Aboriginal engagement.

Ray Hatfield met with newly elected Chief Fred Sackaney of Constance Lake First Nation to continue the Learn More activities in regards to the APM process.

The community Awareness workshop will be postponed until after the fall announcement of which communities will move into phase 2 of stage three.

6.2.a. Committee members discuss any new events/activities in the community

1- Town clerk has resigned effective February 2014.

2-September 19th, the Becker Co-generation plant official opening.

6.2.b. Any further community questions or concerns identified to date to be addressed through feasibility studies-

CLC member asked” if the NWMO renewed the lease for the community office?”

NWMO stated that we currently have a two-year lease that does not expire until mid 2014.

2- If the communities get narrowed down to one community and that community says, “no” would NWMO look back to the communities that were eliminated earlier in the process?

NWMO will prepare a written response.

6.2.c. Update on newsletter, Ask the NWMO and new material for CLC web page
The Hornepayne CLC newsletter was distributed to the community September 17th, 2013.
